

Gramática/Apuntes

Fecha: ___/___/___ Me llamo _____ Hora ___

Saying where you are coming to _____ & from _____ with the verb
venir

(pág. 179)

VENIR A ... (TO)

- The conjugation of the verb “venir” is similar to tener
- Venir is a stem-changing verb (e-ie)
- Venir a = To come to / coming to
- Venir a is used when someone is coming to a place.

FORMULA: Venir + a + el/la + place.

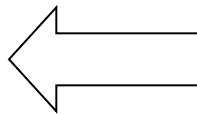

- a + al still equals al.

EXAMPLES:

1. Yo vengo a tu casa. = I am coming to your house.

2. He comes to science class. = Él viene a la clase de ciencias.

VENIR DE ... (FROM)

- Venir de is used to say when someone is coming from a place.
- Venir de = To come from /coming from

FORMULA: Venir + de + el/la + place

- de + el = del

EXAMPLES:

1. Yo vengo de la clase de matemáticas. = I am coming from math class.

2. Ella viene del hospital. = She is coming from the hospital.

3. We (M) are coming from the beach = Nosotros venimos de la playa.

Gramática/Apuntes

Fecha: ___/___/_____ Me llamo _____ Hora ____

- To answer the question:

QUESTION: ¿De dónde vienes, tú? = _____ Where are you (inf.) coming from? _____

ANSWER(S): Yo vengo de la tienda = I am coming from the store. _____

Yo vengo del supermercado = I am coming from the supermarket. _____